

Canning's purpose-designed training centre is in Fulham, one of London's smartest boroughs. Just over a kilometre from our old address in Kensington, it is in the heart of Fulham Broadway, with its bars, shops, cinemas and restaurants, and with easy access on foot to Chelsea Football Club, the River Thames and the fashionable shops of the Kings Road and Fulham Road.

From Canning you can get anywhere in London remarkably quickly. The District Line runs from Fulham Broadway station, and takes you to the tennis at Wimbledon, the museums and park of South Kensington, the markets and restaurants of Notting Hill, Westminster for Parliament and the London Eye, Embankment for the theatres of the Strand and Covent Garden, and The City (the financial district), all in less than 30 minutes.

If you want to watch live sport, top football clubs Chelsea and Fulham both play a short walk from Canning. You can see international and top flight club rugby in Twickenham, home to England and Harlequins, which is just 30 minutes away. And you can watch county and international cricket at Lords or the Oval, both 40 minutes from Canning.

If you want to get away from the busy streets of London and escape to somewhere more tranquil, you can cross the river and get to Richmond Park, with its wild deer and open spaces, or the bird sanctuary at the Wetlands Centre in less than half an hour.

Tubes and trains take you to Heathrow, Gatwick and London City Airports in less than an hour, and the Eurostar rail terminal is 35 minutes away.
